

STILL BOOSTING FOR GOOD ROADS

Meeting at Lagoon This Evening Will Be Productive of Profitable Talk.

UTAH COUNTY COMES NEXT GATHERING PLANNED FOR AMERICAN FORK.

That the good roads movement in Utah, now that it has been given a start, will be permitted to fall into a state that is the late lamented Grover Cleveland characterized as one of incoherent desuetude, is made plain from the fact that this afternoon at Lagoon there will be a meeting of officials of various kinds from Utah county and Salt Lake county, and the county commissioners of Utah county will be present. The meeting will be held at 5 o'clock, so that those taking the 4 o'clock train will be in ample time for the conference.

Already Bears Fruit.

One of the objects of the good roads movement is that every automobilist or driver of a wagon—especially the latter—shall report to the proper officials the presence of mudholes and obstructed passages in streets and roadways.

Yesterday morning Orson H. Hewlett, president of the Automobile club, went to the supervisor of city streets.

"Mr. Raleigh," he said, "I have come to inform you that there is a bad but serious day. Two automobiles have encountered an impediment in the Fifth East drive."

"Will be attended to at once," replied the supervisor. "I will have it fixed by tomorrow."

According to Mr. Hewlett and other enthusiastic members of the Automobile club, the spirit with which the club is entering into the work of making it easy sailing, not only for automobiles, but as well for wagons heavily laden and buggies bearing no heavy burden than two light horses.

At American Fork.

Within ten days the exact date has not yet been fixed, there will be a great meeting of automobilists at American Fork, Utah county, say the officers of the Automobile club. It is the prediction that the meeting at American Fork will eclipse even that at Lagoon last Wednesday.

While every automobilist, whether he is a member of the club or not, is invited to attend a meeting of the club on Friday evening, the 18th of July, at the telephone building. There is to be a general discussion—at least, in a preliminary way—of desired legislative action looking toward the betterment of roads throughout Utah.

How People Can Help.

"It would be a great assistance," said one of the drivers of automobiles in this city, and a careful and conservative one, "if the people would refrain from gathering in groups in the middle of the street to talk. There are few cities where groups of people would refrain from gathering in the middle of the street, even there is so much sidewalk to put their feet on. The people on foot are getting more for their money, but the people in vehicles, auto cars, buggies, and wagons are also entitled to some. I think. The streets of the city are the widest. There is room enough for all. Let us divide them to the extent that the automobilist exercises caution and the people themselves exercise caution."

There were printed yesterday five hundred of the panoramic views taken last Wednesday. These will be distributed by the Automobile club, not only in this city, but elsewhere as well. The picture is three feet long and generous in width. The views are excellent.

PROMISES GALVESTON PLAN

Superintendent of Streets at Des Moines Says System Gives City Economical Government.

That the Galveston plan of city government is an immense success is the opinion of John MacVicar, superintendent of the department of streets and public improvements of Des Moines, Ia., and the secretary of the League of American Municipalities, who visited the session of the Salt Lake council last evening.

In Des Moines the Galveston plan has been enlarged upon considerably and according to Mr. MacVicar—most favorable results have come from its adoption. The city is getting more for their money. The government is being run more economically than for many years in the past. The city is better kept. The streets are being improved, and the whole municipal life shows clearly that the scheme is one which has proved successful in every detail. The main feature is the elimination of politics from municipal government and the substitution of a merit system for all employees.

Mr. MacVicar in commenting on the Salt Lake streets said that he had never seen any finer asphalt paving than that which has been put in here during the past four years. In Des Moines the crooked block pavement is being used extensively, as in many cities the middle west, and he believes it to be the finest pavement in the world.

He is on his way to Los Angeles to investigate the oil macadam pavements which have been laid there. In the hope that they will prove a solution of the efforts of Des Moines to secure a good cheap pavement for its outlying streets.

OGDEN NEWS

Office 410 Twenty-Fifth Street

Ogden, Tuesday, July 14.

DR. W. A. GLEASON IS NEAR DEATH

Salt Lake Man, While Visiting Ogden, Takes Overdose of Morphine.

Returning from a visit to her mother at Five Points, Mrs. Gleason found her husband, Dr. W. A. Gleason of Salt Lake City, suffering from stupor. He was taken to his room and soon lapsed into unconsciousness. Mrs. Gordon and Roach were summoned and after a hasty examination found that Dr. Gleason was suffering from an overdose of morphine. A stomach pump was applied, but the patient did not rally, and the physicians declare that there is but little hope for his recovery. Indications surrounding the affair are said to point to suicidal intent, but his wife and her sister, who were with him before the attack came on, declare there is no foundation for this assumption. Dr. Gleason, with his wife, came to this city about a week ago. He had been in poor health for the past two months, having only recovered from an attack of pneumonia, which left him in a badly run-down condition. He may have taken an overdose of morphine for the purpose of relieving a headache, which he had complained of during the day. Dr. Gleason married Miss Hazel Woodcock of Five Points four months ago. His wife and her sister assisted him to his room and before medical assistance could be summoned he sank into a coma. Dr. Gleason is about thirty years of age.

DISCUSS WATER PLANT.

Councilmen Go Over Proposition to Purchase the Ogden System.

After a long meeting of the city council as a committee of the whole in the mayor's office tonight, at which the question of purchasing the plant of the Ogden Water Works company was discussed, an adjournment was taken to the time when a regular meeting of the city council will be called.

Attorneys J. T. Bagley and Valentine Gideon, who have had in hand the revision of the city ordinances for several months, announced to the council that the work had been completed, with the exception of minor details. Next Thursday evening a meeting will be held with the attorneys and the work in connection of the revision will be begun.

Claims from the different departments of the city aggregating $1,928.45 were ordered paid. The auditor was also instructed to draw warrants for $3,584.42 to cover the payrolls of the past two weeks.

Sidewalk districts comprising two blocks on Van Buren avenue were created on the petition of property holders in that section of the city.

Commissioners Hold Short Session.

Out of respect to the memory of Commissioner Frank Moore's mother, who died Sunday last, the county commissioners held but a brief session yesterday, adjourning at an early hour.

The acceptance by Solomon Stephens of the franchise granted a week ago giving him the right to operate a distributive waterworks system in the Burch Creek district was read.

Park City Man Arrested.

It is charged that Allen stole $100 in gold and silver, a warrant for $120 and several pieces of jewelry. From a rooming house at which he lived while working in a Park City mine.

MANUAL TRAINING TEACHER

Man With Fine Record Is Secured to Take Charge of Department.

R. E. Cannon, one of the leading manual training instructors in the country, has been secured by the board of education to take charge of the manual training department like Ogden City schools for the coming term.

Manual training is a new departure in the Ogden schools. This department will, in addition to the high school, take in the eighth grade as well. Pending the completion of a new high school building the manual training department will be located in the buildings in the rear of the present high school.

Mr. Cannon spent two years at the Armour institute in Chicago, another year at the Bradley School of Polytechnics, and completed his studies at Columbia university. He has had charge of the manual training department of the Oshkosh, Wis., normal school for one year, and conducted a similar department in Colorado for a like period. For the past two years he has been in charge of the manual training department of the Municipal, Ind., public schools.

Preparations have been made for strengthening and expanding the scope of the domestic science department of the local school and this work will be advanced as rapidly as possible.

The board of education sat as a canvassing board on the special bond election yesterday. The result of the canvass brought no change in the result as published at the time of the election.

Miss Willa Spurge was granted a leave of absence for seven weeks, during which time she will represent the Ogden schools among 300 teachers on a visit to the public schools of Germany and England.

QUICK ACTION IN COURT

Greeks Arrested on New Warrant While Receiving Congratulations of His Friends.

Gus Carson, a Greek, 35 years old, discovered yesterday that delay is fatal. Carson, together with Sam Kares, Christ Caros, Paulus Pappas and James Lam-poulis, was brought before Judge Bishop on a charge with assaulting Ed Riddle, a section foreman, with a deadly weapon, on June 23. Through some mistake the complaint charged that Carson assaulted Riddle with an iron bar. When it was discovered that Carson was armed with a pick instead of a bar, the complaint was dismissed by Justice Bishop.

Carson, believing that his troubles were over, did not protest immediately, and was receiving the congratulations of his friends in front of Judge Bishop's office when he was arrested on a complaint specifying the proper weapon. Attorney E. A. Leatherwood, who represented the Greeks, made an earnest plea for a small bail bond, urging as his reason that he believed that the five men could be convicted of nothing worse than a misdemeanor, the penalty for which would be a fine and that they ought to have a chance to secure work and earn money with which to meet the penalty. Carson was held in the sum of $500 bail. Kares, who is less than 17 years old, for $250, and the others for $100 each. Carson's hearing is fixed for July 17.

FACE CUT BY GLASS.

Driver Injured by Bursting of Soda Water Bottle.

Ralph Hansen, a driver for the Den-halter Bottling company, was terribly cut about the face yesterday morning, at Murray, by the breaking of a bottle of soda water. Mr. Hansen had made a stop at the Excelsior store and was in the act of setting a case of soda water down in the wagon, when it slipped from his hands, the breaking of the bottle followed, and as Hansen was in a crouched position, he received the shattered glass in his face.

He was taken to the Murray Pharmacy and after a supply of plaster had been applied the wounds stopped bleeding. It will be some time before his face gets back to its normal shape.

The driver which Hansen succeeded met with a similar accident about a year ago, which resulted in the loss of an eye.

UNNECESSARY TO REGISTER ANEW

Electors Whose Names Are on Books May Vote for Bryan Without Further Action.

Approaching election time, there is always more or less inquiry concerning registration rules and regulations and laws, and always the attorney general of every state is called upon to arbitrate the difference between the printed statute and the doubts that exist in the minds of men. This year the inquiries have begun to come in early. Mark Tuttle, the county clerk of Emery county, at Castledale, asks the attorney general to interpret the law for him to this extent:

"Will it be necessary for a complete new registration this fall?"

Major Breeden replies that it will not be necessary for those whose names are on the list of registered voters for the last general or municipal election to register again, in accordance with a section of the law relating to the duties of county clerks, the number of which is $16, and it is to be found in the Compiled Laws of 1907. This section is self-explanatory. Its provisions reading:

"Prior to the time for registering voters at each general or municipal election, the county clerk of each county of the state shall prepare and publish in alphabetical order of all persons who voted at the last general or municipal election, as shown by the checked copies of the official register used, or poll list made at such election, which official register of the district at least thirty days prior to the first day of registration, and shall be revised by adding the names of all persons registered on the proper days prior to the election."

SOLVES PACIFIC PROBLEM

Sadie Meyers Brings About Entente Between America, China and Japan.

Sadie Meyers last evening solved the problem of war or peace between America and Japan, and Japan and China, or war between all three, for Miss Meyers filled all of the representatives of all these countries so full of ice cream and lemonade and cake and other ammunition from a bountifully supplied arsenal, that nobody-jingo, Jap or Chink—was in any mood for international complications.

Miss Meyers entertained her friends—not all of them, but some of them—at a Japanese party last evening on the beautiful lawn on State street just north of the Elks' building. The young ladies were all dressed in Japanese costumes, while the boys wore the costume of the Chinese. A few Americans of more mature years and matronly demeanor were dressed in American fashion.

They had a jolly good time, did those youngsters in their Oriental gowns. There was plenty to eat and plenty to drink and plenty to be said. There was plenty of music and plenty of dancing afterwards, and, when it was all over, and the Japanese lanterns had been extinguished, they all said "Banza!" for Miss Meyers. Those who took part in this pleasant little evening's entertainment were: Sadie Meyers, Anna Sullivan, Evelyn McBride, Josie Kauffman, Gertrude Raddatz, Rose Williams, Lucille Anderson, Ruby Manning, Caroline Schiller, Mary Klein, Edith Adams, Eddie Woolf, Enez Anderson, Helen Knowlton, Edward Norton, James White, Herbert Schiller, Walter Catto, Walter Wolf and Paul Simons.

The duet by the Misses Sadie Meyers and Anna Sullivan was a charming bit of music.
